To all Competitors – THANK YOU for taking part and as always competing in the friendly way that has become a tradition amongst Masters Athletes.

Each year we get together for this major event on our calendar, with an expectation of great competition, friendly rivalry, revisiting old friends and hopefully some great results. I hope most, if not all of you ended this competition satisfied that you did your best and met most of these expectations. For those of you who were competing in the Nationals for the first time I hope you enjoyed them as much as the “old timers” do and that we will see you again. Congratulations to you all on many exemplary performances and on the many new records set.

To all Officials – THANK YOU

The Local Organising Committee has been tremendous in the effort they have put in to make these Championships work and I thank them sincerely. They and many other members of the South Australian Masters, the South Australian Officials Club and Athletics SA all worked very hard to ensure we gave you the best athletic experience possible.

To all Sponsors – THANK YOU.

While these Championships would be impossible without the athletes and all the willing volunteers, we would also find it difficult without the very kind support of our sponsors. Our naming rights sponsor – Savings & Loans Credit Union, City Bay (Fun Run) Trust, the SA Office for Recreation and Sport, Adelaide City Council, Fitness on the Park, Financial Advisory Services and Schild Estate Wines. We all have a choice in who we go to for various services and I hope you will support these sponsors where possible.

For those of us involved in the organisation there are mixed feelings of relief (I think that dominates), pride and sadness - but the “fat lady has sung” - all over for Adelaide for another 7 years – see you in Perth next year.
